February 1: Sikh Ideology of One Universal Creator

Satinder Singh (he/him)

Sikh ideology is based on One Universal Creator and oneness of all humanity and creation. Satinder Singh will discuss about the tenets of Sikhism that emphasize that all people are fundamentally equal and one may get this realization through service and humility. The path of Sikhism involves honest living, meditation, and sharing rooted in the belief of oneness.

February 8: Across the Racial Divide: How 28 Years in Paris has Changed a Black Journalist's View of the World

Ricki Stevenson (she/her)

Ricki Stevenson began her love affair with Paris as a child. Now her Divinely guided walk of faith inspires thousands of travelers to take her Black Paris Tour! Learn more about the rich legacy of Black Paris history through the eyes of this Oakland born journalist.

February 15: Lady Bianca Sings the Blues: A Music Celebration of Black History Month

Lady Bianca (she/her)

Please join us for a musical celebration of Black History Month! Our guest speaker/musician is Lady Bianca, a local legend who has been called "The Queen of Gospel and Blues". Lady Bianca will lead us on a musical journey through gospel, jazz and blues and give us her musical insights for this important historical holiday.

February 22: Anti-Capitalism, Democratic Socialism & Gift Economy Hank Pellissier (he/him)

Greed, Exploitation, and Hoarding are prioritized in the USA financial system that places top value on solitary profit. The result is beggars, billionaires, endless war, and eco-catastrophe. New economies are desperately needed. Democratic Socialism will be advocated, and beyond that, the community-building utopia of empathetic Gift Economics.

President's Corner

Grief, horror, fury. It is hard to know what to write in such a time.

This week I have felt inspired by our fellow countrymen in Minneapolis, at the same time, exhausted by the witness of such evil.

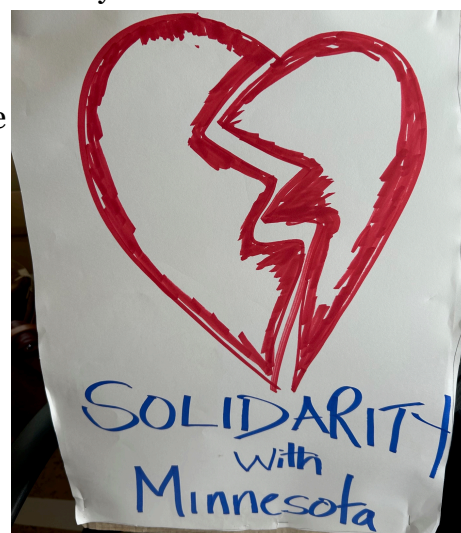

Two themes are emerging in thoughtful journalism – one is National Trauma, the other is Moral Injury. National Trauma refers more to the psychological/physical impact of watching violence and terror. Our nervous systems don't distinguish well between reality and what we see on the screen. Because we are empathetic creatures we feel as we watch our fellow citizens suffer and it haunts us even when not watching. That is exhausting and can be debilitating. We call that Vicarious Trauma.

Moral Injury is the psychological/emotional toll from the betrayal of deeply held values and moral standards. It's a soul wound. We are watching our Government betray so many legal standards and norms. Many of us feel disoriented "this is not the country I thought I lived in". They are behaving in a way that is completely antithetical to our Unitarian Universalist core beliefs. We cannot accommodate ourselves to this new reality.

One thing I know - it is important to gather together. In fellowship we can feel some stability. Solidarity brings comfort and power. I feel so fortunate that in our Bay Area there are multiple opportunities for unity and courage. Rev. Gregory reminded us on Sunday that our Unitarian values call us to participate. I was so proud that BFUU was willing to offer its space to Indivisible East Bay on Sunday afternoon for its kick off '26 meeting. Our Fellowship Hall was completely packed with citizens ready to undertake multiple tasks to turn the tide. This was so reflective of the faithful, activist fellowship BFUU is.

Shalom

gillian

Worship Service Leaders

Satinder Singh (he/him)

Satinder Pal Singh is a Structural Engineer and has been a regular attendee at the El Sobrante Sikh Center congregation for over thirty-five years. He taught Sunday School for nearly twenty years from 1995 through 2014. He has also mentored high school students in the community and has often volunteered on behalf of the Sikh Center.

Ricki Stevenson (she/her)

Ricki Stevenson, is an international journalist and founder of Black Paris Tours, now in its 28th year of introducing more than 250 thousand travelers to the rich legacy of Black history in the City of Light. Born at Oak Knoll Naval hospital, raised in East Palo Alto, Ricki dreamed of two things as a child: (1) Becoming a newscaster to tell the truth about Black people and (2) Living in Paris. Armed with an MA in History/Political Science from Stanford, she's anchored national radio newscasts from NYC, served as a United Nations correspondent, anchored and reported with KCBS (San Francisco), Financial News Network, News Travel Network, the British Sky News Network, KRON and France24 (the French version of CNN). Ricki says her life has been a Divinely guided walk of Faith that began when she was 3 years old and her Mom, a former dancer, took her to see the Josephine Baker perform.

Lady Bianca (she/her)

Lady Bianca is a Gospel and R&B vocalist/pianist and producer with roots in Kansas City, MO. Raised by a father who taught her Texas Blues piano as a child, Bianca's formal training began at age nine with the San Francisco Conservatory of Music where her exceptional talent garnered her a full four year scholarship. Bianca's first paying gig was at the age of seventeen with Quinn Harris & The Masterminds and it was Harris who bestowed the title of Lady Bianca as she was "so pure and conservative". Since then, Lady Bianca has evolved into an icon in the San Francisco Bay Area and is widely known as the "Queen of the Blues and Gospel".

Hank Pellissier (he/him)

Hank is founder/director of Humanist Mutual Aid Network, a nonprofit working mostly in Africa. He lives in Piedmont with his wife Carol, they raised two bio-daughters, and they're now guardians of a foster refugee girl from Ethiopia, plus Hank has a bio-son (he was the sperm donor to two lesbian friends). Hank is currently a contracted education writer for GreatSchools.org, he was previously managing director for a futurist think tank, the Institute for Ethics & Emerging Technology, and a columnist for Salon.com, SFGate.com, and NYTimes (SF edition). His main interest is wealth distribution/global egalitarianism/poverty alleviation; he just launched a website titled Eat The Rich. He also writes limericks and doggerel, decades ago he was a performance artist and a SF Slam Poetry co-champion.

Poetry Corner

What is it stirs the air, that feeds my blood and touches with bright wingtips
the silence under my heart?

Thought, a thorough designation
of rhyme and reasons?

Emotions throbbing with the hot earth's core?

Love flexible and flowing humble and grand.

Love
in the silence under my heart—flowers.

Pastoral Care with Rev. Jojo

Pastoral/spiritual care provides soul companioning to any BFUU member/ guest care seeker, regardless of age, gender, race/ethnicity, beliefs, status, and other divisive demographics. Soul companioning helps care seekers listen for the spiritual misery they may be experiencing, without changing or compromising their own faith convictions.

Rev. Jojo offers in-person pastoral/spiritual care, either at the care seeker’s home or, at the BFUU Minister’s Office at 1606 Bonita Avenue, Berkeley, CA 94709. For appointments, please call +1\(209\)-693-8947-693-8947), or email: josefina.gabuya@cst.edu
